The Schwab Beaubourg Gallery, under the leadership of Micaela Neveu from March 10, 2025, and guided by Art Engagement Consulting, embarks on a new chapter with the first exhibition of the season, Entropy. This exceptional project shines a spotlight on the metaphysical artistry of Antoni Taulé, who delves into the concept of entropy through a series of exclusive works created since 2019. As both a physical and philosophical notion, Entropy explores the transformative journey from order to a state of “disordered equilibrium”, inviting the viewer on an initiatory voyage through dreamlike realms and metaphysical architectures. The exhibition provokes a profound reflection on time, space, change, and our role within the human experience.

THE ARTIST – ANTONI TAULÉ

BIOGRAPHY

Antoni Taulé, born in 1945 in Sabadell, Spain, is a pivotal figure in contemporary art, renowned for his metaphysical exploration of time and space. After studying architecture in Barcelona, he began exhibiting his work in 1965 while contributing to large-scale urban planning projects. In 1970, he moved to Formentera, and in 1972, he further honed his painting skills in London. His first solo exhibition at the Mathias Fels Gallery in Paris in 1975 marked the beginning of an international career, leading to over a hundred exhibitions worldwide. Taulé's unique body of work, straddling abstraction and figuration, delves into a cosmic dimension where architecture, nature, and abstraction converge. Now based in Paris, Taulé has become a key player in contemporary art, collaborating with renowned figures such as Rudolf Nureyev and Ariel Garcia-Valdès.

EXHIBITION OVERVIEW

Entropy, Antoni Taulé's new exhibition at the Schwab Beaubourg Gallery, directed and curated by Micaela Neveu and Art Engagement Consulting, offers an immersive journey into a world where change, movement, and balance lie at the heart of reflection. The term "entropy," derived from the Greek entropê, meaning both "the action of turning" and "transformation," refers not only to the spontaneous evolution of a system toward a state of equilibrium but also to the very process of this transformation.

Through 26 never-before-seen works, Taulé leads us into a realm where the imaginary lines of horizons, perspectives, and designed architectures collide with primal natural forces. The exhibition brings together inner landscapes of the human soul and strikingly beautiful scenes, where dreamlike visions intertwine with reality. Each painting engages in a dialogue with the viewer, inviting intimate introspection, where moments and spaces transform to the rhythm of a suspended cosmic pendulum.

The exhibition's path is structured around a symmetry between the four natural elements, with each piece exploring polarities: light/darkness, life/death, space/time. The architecture of the canvases forms an organic harmony, where painting transcends the ordinary, revealing fragments of mysterious structures, desolate landscapes, and backlighting of ethereal beauty

MICAELA NEVEU: A “METAPHYSICAL REALISM”

Micaela Neveu, art historian and founder of Art Engagement Consulting, describes Antoni Taulé’s painting as “metaphysical realism.” The artist manages to transcend reality while retaining its deep roots in the human condition. While his works originate in the concrete and tangible, they evolve into explorations of the beyond—into a metaphysical realm where the perception of space and time is reimagined. Through this approach, Taulé goes beyond the mere representation of the visible, placing his creations within a realm of reflection and transcendence, where each piece invites the viewer to embark on a journey toward cosmic unity.

ABOUT SCHWAB BEAUBOURG GALLERY & ART ENGAGEMENT CONSULTING

Under the leadership of Micaela Neveu, art historian and founder of Art Engagement Consulting, the Schwab Beaubourg Gallery, located just steps from the Centre Pompidou, is reinventing itself as a space for reflection and experimentation. More than just an aesthetic venue, it has become a platform where art questions, deconstructs, and reimagines the world, constantly challenging artistic conventions. The grand opening on March 21, 2025, will be marked by the exhibition Entropy by Antoni Taulé, a project that transforms art into a powerful tool for reflecting on contemporary issues. Through "performative curating," the gallery will explore the boundaries between art, culture, and critical thought. In parallel, a partnership with the Art Mouvance association – Société pour l'Art will host a monthly literary and artistic club, fostering intellectual exchange and deepening reflection on art in all its forms.
